

Homework overview Summer 3.1 Year 6

Week 1 – Homework given: 02/05/2025 Homework due: 07/05/2025
Maths	Reading Comprehension	English	Spellings
Pages 78-79 Units of Measurement	Pages 82 - 85	Pages 60 – 61 Using a dictionary	Unstressed vowels: awkward, temperature, queue, cemetery, sincerely, disastrous, restaurant, desperate, vegetable, dictionary, thorough, average, bargain, environment, especially.
Week 2 – Homework given: 09/05/2025 Homework due: 14/05/2025
Maths	Reading Comprehension	English	Spellings
Pages 80 -83 Perimeter and Area Are of Triangles and Parallelograms	Pages 86 – 90 Progress Test 3	Pages 62 – 63 Using a thesaurus	Words ending in -cial official, special, artificial, racial, facial, beneficial, specialist, specially, commercial, financial, provincial, social, commercial, crucial, judicial, superficial.
Week 3 – Homework given: 16/05/2025 Homework due: 21/05/2025
Maths	Reading Comprehension	English	Spellings
Pages 96 – 97 Co-ordinates	Pages 24 – 25 Prose Genres In ENGLISH BOOK	Prefixes and Suffixes Pages 12 - 15	Words ending in -tial essential, torrential, potential, partial, impartial, substantial, influential, confidential, consequential, preferential.
Week 4 – Homework given: 26/05/2025 Homework due: 4/06/2025
Maths	Reading Comprehension	English	Spellings
Pages 98 - 99 Translation	Pages 26 - 29 Formal and Informal Writing In ENGLISH BOOK	Pages 16 – 19 Adding Prefixes to root words and Root words	Words that end in - sure/-ture measure, pleasure, enclosure, pressure, assure, leisure, future, creature, furniture, picture, nature, adventure, moisture, fracture, immature, puncture, feature, mixture, structure, texture.

Home project: Create a digital portrait of a family member or a celebrity. Create a treasure hunt: use 4-figure and 6-figure grid references to find hidden "treasures" on a map. You can design a map of a fictional place or use a real map of your local area. Map historical landmarks of Birmingham using grid references. Research the significance of each landmark and present as a poster.			