

Homework Overview Summer Term 3.2

Week Beginning: 01.06.2026
Key skills
In nursery we love to talk, we have lots of lovely conversations with our friends and teachers. Start a family conversation to talk about your day. Remember the important skills of conversation, to listen and take turns. When we talk, we must remember to use full sentences. If your child needs support with this, you can model this to them. Example: What did you do in nursery today? In nursery, I played with my friend Mohammad, we played in the sand.
Week Beginning: 08.06.2026
Key skills
To share stories with an adult. Choose your favourite story book, this could be one you have at home or one from our nursery library. Can you name the features of the book? Ask an adult to share the story with you, what is happening in the pictures? Is there a favourite character within the story?
Week Beginning: 15.06.2026
Key skills
We have been talking about different people who help us, the teachers, our families to emergency services. We have discussed why it is important to be kind to one another and how we could help people. Using the box template draw somebody who helps you, or somebody you have helped. Think about the person you are drawing, what features do they have, have they got long hair or short hair, or do they cover their hair? Use detail in your drawing.

Week Beginning: 22.06.2026

To count to 5.

We are learning how to count in order, from zero to five.

We can use songs and rhymes to help us to learn the order of numbers. Sing some songs with your child to support their counting.

Five Little Ducks.

Five Little Speckled Frogs.

Five Little Men in a Flying Saucer.

Week Beginning: 29.06.2026

Key skills

As we are coming to the end of our nursery year, we need to get ready for moving to reception, this means being more independent for September.

It is very important that we can be independent. Can you practise putting on your shoes, coat, using the toilet and washing our hands, independently.

Week Beginning: 06.07.2026

Key skills

Ready for September, we need to recognise our names. This will help us to know where to put our water bottles.

When you write the letters of your name, it is important that you only use a capital letter for the first letter of your name. The rest should be lower case.

For example: Capital letter >>> Alisha Mohammad <<< Lower case

Week beginning:

Can you draw somebody who helps you at school, at home or in your community?
